

Harnham Meeting

Mr. Willoughby Gray, a guest member of Salisbury Arts Theatre Company, spoke about his experiences as an actor in television plays, and discussed the problems and qualities of this new medium for drama. He was thanked by Mrs. Elliott. Mr. Gray judged an ankle competition, which was won by Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Snell.

In February a public brains trust was organised at Harnham Hall. The question-master was Captain R. H. D. Olivier, R. N. (Retired), and the "brains" were Mrs. T. H. Morony, Miss Nicol, Inspector Bragger (of the N.S.P.C.C.) and Mr. J. H. Hadow. There was a good variety of questions, and excellent discussions followed.

Salisbury Journal March 1951