

Wanted – John Shore

Two Guineas Reward.

Whereas John Shore, of the Parish of West Lavington, did, in November last, leave his Wife and Child chargeable to the said Parish of West Lavington, as he is supposed to have gone to London to his Friends, - Whoever will apprehend the John Shore, and bring him to the Overseer of the Parish of West Lavington, will receive the above Reward, with reasonable expenses.

The said John Shore is about 5ft 8in in height, brown hair, light eyes, with the mark of the Evil under his chin, and stoutish made; he had on, when he left his wife, a velveteen waistcoat, striped trowsers, and drab-coloured great-coat.

Robert Lye, Overseer.
West Lavington, Dec.27, 1812.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday 20 January 1812