

SOUTH WILTSHIRE CORONER'S INQUESTS

Westbury

Alfred Sainsbury

1900

At an inquest held at Broker's Wood, near Westbury, Wilts, on Thursday, relative to the sudden death of an elderly man named Alfred Sainsbury, the medical evidence was to the effect that death was due to syncope, probably caused by the excessive heat. Bath Chronicle 26th July 1900
