

Crime Reports

Wilcot 1800-1849

1837

Committed to Marlborough Bridewell John Stagg, for two months, for a trespass, at Wilcot.
Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 23 January 1837

1841

William Scott, convicted of breaking into the dwelling-house of Charles Dowse, at Wilcot, and stealing a pair of boots and various other articles, was sentenced to 18 month's hard labour. There was another indictment for burglary against the prisoner, but that was withdrawn. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 8 March 1841