

Election of New Coroner for South Wilts.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and freeholders of the county of WILTS.

GENTLEMEN,

Mr. George Whitmarsh, of Wilton, late Coroner for the South Part of the County of Wilts, being dead, and I having received the Approbation of many of the Noblemen, and a great Number of the principal Gentlemen of the County, to succeed him, beg Leave to desire the Favour of your Votes and Interest for, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient humble Servant, HENRY THRESHER

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 29 June 1767