

Christmas Donation to Tenants

Peter Templeman, Esq., of Bath, the owner of the two farms comprising the parish of Winterbourn Dansey, near this city, has, we hear, forwarded £40 to his two tenants, to be distributed among the poor of the parish during the present inclement season.

As the number of families thus to be benefited is less than twenty, this liberal donation will make a handsome addition to their comforts.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 19 December 1846