

SALE THIS DAY

HURDCOTT FARM, WINTERBOURNE EARLS 1881

FRIDAY, MAY 6TH

MARSH, DAWES, & DEAR
are instructed by Mr T B SUTTON,
to SELL BY AUCTION,
on the premises at Hurdcott Farm, Winterbourne Earls,
on Friday, May 6th, 1881,
some very promising CART and NAG COLTS, BROOD MARE,
SOWS in farrow, FAT PIGS,
together with the FARM IMPLEMENTS (late the property of Mr James Read, deceased), comprising 15-coulter corn drill, stacking elevator,
and horse gear by Watson;
sets of iron and wood harrows; leaf iron drags;
horse rake; rollers; cow cribs; Samuelson's reaper;
iron and wood pig troughs; tip carts;
broad and narrow-wheel waggons;
7 wood ploughs, by Tasker;
water barrel on wheels; sets of horse bells;
seed box and barrows;
nine-share ploughs; hen coops; chaff-cutter;
sets of thill and trace harness; plough hames;
set of carriage harness;
bridle and saddle' dog cart, &c, & c.

Sale to commence at 12 o'clock

Further particulars may be obtained of the AUCTIONEERS, City Chambers, Salisbury; or of MARSH & DAWES, DEVIZES

Western Gazette Friday 06 May 1881