

Wootton Bassett

Parish Snippets

1739

Nicholas Robinson of Wootton Bassett was a Captain of a sloop to prevent smuggling and received a salary of £500 a year. (Source unknown)

1896

Made in Wiltshire?

In the photo gallery above there is an image of a Delph style jug with the inscription of 'Joseph Little, Wootton Bassett, 1896'. The jug forms part of the ceramics collection held at the Nation Maritime Museum, Greenwich. The transfer printed jug shows scenes of Greenwich.