This volume contains the Marriage Registers of seven parishes, counting Fuggleston with Bemerton as one; four of them going back into the sixteenth century. These four are Bratton, which begins in 1542; Boyton, in 1560; Kington St. Michael, in 1563; and Latton, in 1578; lying in widely dispersed parts of the county, from the North-Eastern boundary to well over towards the South-Western. It may be observed as an interesting coincidence that at Eisey, which is now joined to Latton, the Register begins in 1575, and that in the adjoining parish of Castle Eaton it is still older, beginning in 1549.

Of the later Registers, Fuggleston with Bemerton begins in 1608, Collingbourne Ducis in 1654, and Sherrington in 1677. A sentimental interest attaches to Fuggleston with Bemerton in consequence of the connection of George Herbert with the latter; during that short period the Register seems to be complete, but speaking generally it is very faulty; there are serious gaps; in one place it has apparently been deliberately mutilated; and the writing is in many parts lamentably bad and illiterate.

In the next volume it is proposed to commence the Marriage Register of St. Edmund's, Salisbury. This important parish has a practically complete Register for over three hundred and fifty years—from 1st January, 1559-60; which will be found to be full of interest. The Marriage Registers of Salisbury will then be complete.

The Editors desire to offer their thanks to the clergy of the parishes who have kindly given facilities for making these transcripts; to the Rev. J. E. Gofton, who, in addition, transcribed the Marriage Register of Bratton; to the Rev. F. P. Synge, who completed the transcript of Kington St. Michael, which was begun by the late Rev. A. H. W. Adrian, D.D.; to the Rev. W. Symonds for the transcript of Fuggleston with Bemerton ; to Mr. J. J. Hammond for those of Boyton and Sherrington ; to Mr. A. H. W. Fynmore for that of Latton ; and to the Rev. R. Grosvenor Bartelot and the Rev. G. F. Tanner who respectively began and finished that of Collingbourne Ducis.

The Editors will be grateful for similar help from any clergymen whose Registers have not yet been copied, or from anyone else who will kindly undertake the task with the necessary permission of the clergyman of the parish. It is only by such help that it is possible to carry on the work, which probably everyone with any knowledge of these valuable records considers necessary for the preservation of the information they contain.

It is advisable to repeat the warning that these transcripts are not to be looked upon as "evidence" in the legal acceptance of the term ; where such "evidence" is desired application must be made to the clergy in whose custody the Registers are.

Wiltshire Parish Registers.

Marriages at Bratton,

1542 to 1837.

NOTE.—These Marriages are contained in seven volumes, all of them in a good state of preservation. The first five are of parchment, and contain entries of Baptisms and Burials as well as Marriages; the last two are of paper and contain entries of Marriages only.

Volume I commences in 1542, but there is no Marriage entered until 1544; it ends in December 1681.

Volume II commences in January 1682/3, and contains the Marriages until 7 November 1715; it recommences on 10 June 1734, and ends in 1739.

Volume III begins in 1716 and ends in January 1731/2.

Volume IV " 1740 " 1747.

Volume V " 1750 " March 1754.

Volume VI " 1754 " 1812.

Volume VII " 1813 " 1837.

At the beginning of Volume I is a heading:—"The names of all such which have been married within the Church of Little Stoke aforesaid since the first of January A.D. 1542." According to Hoare's Hundred of Westbury, p. 57, there were three tithings in Bratton, viz.: "Millbourn Bratton and Stoke is in Bratton, where the Church now stands." And in a Will dated 1558, printed in Wilts Notes and Queries, vol. iii, p. 206, the testator expresses a wish to be buried in the churchyard of his "parrishe church of litell Stoke in Bratton". It seems fair to assume therefore that Bratton Church was once called Little Stoke, though it does not appear when the name was changed.

These transcripts have been made and collated with the Registers by the Rev. J. E. Gofton, Vicar of Bratton, and are printed with his permission.

VOLUME I.

"The names of all such which have been married within the Church of Little Stoke aforesaid since the first of January A.D. 1542."

Marriages at Kington St. Michael,

1563 to 1837.

NOTE.—The Marriages here prior to 1 July 1837 are contained in eight volumes.

Volume I begins in 1563 and ends in 1639.

Volume II begins in 1640 and ends in 1661.

Volume III begins in 1663 and ends in 1691. These three volumes contain entries of Baptism and Burial as well as Marriage.

Volume IV begins in 1692. The Baptisms and Burials are entered until 1790; but the Marriages cease in 1754.

Volume V and the remaining volumes in this list contain Marriages only. The dates of commencement and ending are, respectively; for this volume, 1754 and 1768;

Volume VI, 1769 and 1801;

Volume VII, 1801 and 1812; and

Volume VIII, 1813 and 1837.

These transcripts, which have been collated with the Registers, were commenced by the late Dr. A. H. W. Adrian, and completed by the Rev. F. P. Synge, the present Vicar of Kington St. Michael, by whose permission they are printed.

Marriages at Fuggleston St. Peter with Bemerton,

1608 to 1837.

NOTE.—The memory of George Herbert clings to Bemerton, where the poet-priest prayed and sang and strewed the little church with rushes, where he built his pleasant parsonage, and laid out his garden by the river-side. The book is still extant in which he caused the Christenings and the Marriages to be recorded, and where, among the Burials, the close of his too short life is written. The Register Book, which was sometimes in his hands, chronicles the Baptisms and Burials, 1568-1654, and the Marriages, 1608-1635, at both his churches, Fuggleston and Bemerton, but some ruthless hand has torn away the last page where the other weddings were set down.

Fuggleston has its own separate register from 1654, and Bemerton from 1656. There is a terrible gap in the Bemerton Marriages, 1636-1671, and, while all marriage entries are entirely wanting from 1568 to 1607 for both places, the Fuggleston Register is deficient in that respect, 1636-1654, 1672-1674, and 1748-1755. Unfortunately the Bishop's Transcripts fail to supply a single entry of the missing Marriages. The few additional particulars which they contain are printed within brackets and distinguished by an asterisk.

The Marriage entries before 1813 have been transcribed (and collated with the few extant Transcripts in the Diocesan Registry) by the Rev. W. Symonds, M.A., Chaplain of Chavenage, Glouc.; the continuation to 1837 by Mr. T. H. Baker; and are printed with the sanction of the Rev. Canon Warre, Rector of Fuggleston with Bemerton.

Marriages at Boyton,

1560 to 1837.

NOTE.—This parish, until the year 1808, included the dependent chapelry of Rodden, mentioned in the Register as “the tithing of Rhoddon”, as “Rhoddon neere Frome Selwood, within this Parish of Boyton”, or simply as “Rhoddon” or “Rodden”, as it is now called. It lies a short distance East of Frome, in Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells; and its connection is explained by Sir R. C. Hoare (Hund. of Heytesbury, p. 205) as owing to the Lords of the Manor of Boyton having founded the chapel and retained the presentation. The final separation from Boyton took place in 1808. The same authority tells us (p. 218) that there was at one time a chapel at Corton in this parish; that the last institution he was able to trace took place in 1395; and that all trace of the building was lost in his time. See also Collinson's Somerset, and Somerset and Dorset Notes & Queries, vol. xi, p. 70. The Registers before July 1837 consist of eight volumes; the four earliest are of parchment.

Volume I, 12 in. by $5\frac{1}{2}$ in., is bound in vellum and contains all the entries from 1560 till 1710, excepting the period covered by Volume II. The entries from 1560 to 1599 are evidently copied from an earlier book now lost. There are none in 1590 and 1591, though there is a space apparently left for them. Inside the cover is an interesting note:—“Johannes Yarton Pastor Boytonensis, pro tempore, nuperrime minister Andoveriensis 1646”.

Volume II contains the Marriages from 1654 to January 1658-9.

Volume III, $12\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $7\frac{1}{2}$ in., has the entries from 1711 to 1751.

Volume IV, $12\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $7\frac{3}{4}$ in., begins in 1752 and ends in 1779, but it has only one entry of Marriage.

Volume V is made up of the ordinary printed forms for Marriages, and contains the entries from 1754 to 1786.

Volume VI has no entry of Marriage.

Volume VII has those from 1789 to 1812, and

Volume VIII those from 1813 to the end of June 1837.

These transcripts have been made and collated with the Registers by Mr. J. J. Hammond, and they are printed at the request of the Rev. Canon Steward, Rector of Boyton and Sherrington.

Marriages at Sherrington,

1677 to 1837.

NOTE.—The Marriage Registers of this parish consist of four volumes prior to 1 July, 1837.

Volume I is of parchment, 12½ inches by 8½ inches, bound in vellum boards, and contains the entries of Baptism, Marriage and Burial from 1677 to 1744; but there is no Marriage recorded before 18 December, 1705.

Volume II, also of parchment, 12½ inches by 8 inches, has the entries of Baptism and Burial, from 1745 till 1812; but the entries of Marriage cease in 1752.

Volume III, has Marriages only from 1754 to 1812: and Volume IV, from 1813 to 30 June, 1837. These two volumes are made up of the usual printed forms.

The Church is dedicated to SS. Cosmos and Damien.

These transcripts have been made and collated with the Registers by Mr. J. J. Hammond, and are printed at the request of the Rev. Canon Steward, Rector of Boyton and Sherrington.

Marriages at Latton,

1578 to 1837.

NOTE.—The Marriage entries are contained in five volumes.

The first has those of the years 1578 to 1692. This volume is made up of two old ones bound together; the leaves are of parchment and vary in size, being $14\frac{1}{2}$, 15, and $15\frac{1}{2}$ ins. by 6 ins. In the older of the original volumes the dates are those of the civil year before 1590, and again in 1599; the Marriages follow consecutively down to 1630; in the later one they are entered irregularly from 1632 to 1692.

The second volume is also of parchment, with the leaves measuring 13 ins. by 6 ins. There is a gap of seven years before the Marriages begin in 1699; the last entry is dated 8 June 1742. There are some interesting entries in this volume concerning the payment of fees on marriage, imposed by an Act of Parliament of 6 and 7, William and Mary.

The third volume is bound in parchment boards, the leaves measuring $13\frac{1}{2}$ ins. by $5\frac{3}{4}$ ins. The Marriages run from 16 Sept. 1742 to 12 March 1754.

The fourth has no Marriage entry.

The fifth is made up of the usual printed forms and contains the Marriages from 21 Nov. 1754 to the end of 1812.

The sixth has those from 1813 to the end of June 1837.

These transcripts have been made by Mr. A. H. W. Fynmore and the Rev. C. R. Gott, Vicar of Latton with Eisey; they have been collated with the originals and are printed with Mr. Gott's permission.

Marriages at Collingbourne Ducis,

1654 to 1837.

NOTE.—The Marriage entries are contained in five volumes of the Register.

Volume I contains the entries from 17 July 1654 to 6 December 1736; and Volume II those from 30 June 1737 to 24 March 1754.

Volume III, which, with the succeeding volumes, is made up of the usual printed forms, begins on 1 October 1754 and ends on 14 January 1808.

Volume IV begins on 21 February 1808 and ends with the year 1812.

Volume V begins with the year 1813 and ends on 30 June 1837.

These transcripts have been made by the Rev. R. Grosvenor Bartelot and the Rev. G. F. Tanner, Rector of Collingbourne Ducis; they have been collated with the Register, and are printed with Mr. Tanner's permission.
